SESSION TITLE: Where Thinking and Learning Meet!

- What does it mean to think?
- What ARE thinking skills?
- What are thinking tools?
- What is the relationship between thinking skills and thinking tools?
- What ARE levels of thinking?
- Does thinking occur in levels?
- Is it possible to engage in higher level thinking without lower level thinking?
- Conversely, is it possible to engage in lower level thinking without higher level thinking?
- What is the relationship between thinking and learning?
- Is it necessary to understand the relationship between thinking and learning in order to successfully infuse thinking into our everyday practice?

This session invites you to examine and challenge your understanding of thinking and learning, and explore the relationship between the two.
